

Gladys Pérez Villanueva is a solo practitioner, providing legal services to corporate clients in the trial and appellate courts, and routinely serves as an attorney fee expert. Ms. Pérez Villanueva was previously a partner at Shutts & Bowen, LLP, handling class actions, mass litigation, and appeals. She has experience in both the private and public sector, having also served as County Court Judge for the Eleventh Judicial Circuit, Assistant General Counsel to the Governor, Assistant Attorney General in the Office of Civil Rights, and as an appellate law clerk at the Fourth District Court of Appeal. She is a frequent lecturer and panelist and has published articles on ethics, civil rights, and administrative law. She taught at the University of Miami's Division of Continuing and International Education and was a member of the civil faculty for the statewide education of county court judges during her time on the bench.

Pérez Villanueva graduated magna cum laude from Barry University, receiving a Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy. She received her Juris Doctor, cum laude, from Nova Southeastern University.