

Judge Dorian K. Damoorgian

DEGREES: J.D., Samford University, Cumberland School of Law, 1980; B.A., cum laude, American University, 1977.

LEGAL OFFICES & POSITIONS: Judge, Fourth District Court of Appeal, January 2008-present; Chief Judge, Fourth District Court of Appeal, July 1, 2013-June 30, 2015; Circuit Court Judge, Seventeenth Judicial Circuit, 1999-2007, Administrative Judge of the Civil Division, September-December, 2007, Civil Division, 2003-2007, Felony Division, 2002-2003, Combined Domestic Violence, Juvenile and Dependency Divisions, 1999-2002; Private Practice, 1980-1999.

ACTIVITIES: The Florida Bar, 1980-present; served on numerous committees involving issues relating to court budget and personnel, resource allocation, and diversity.

HONORS & AWARDS: Recipient of the 2007 “Stephen R. Booher Memorial Award”, Broward County Bar Association; recipient of the 2005 “Outstanding Judge Award”, Fort Lauderdale Chapter of the American Board of Trial Advocates.